

TEAM MEMBER PORTRAIT

DANA LAMB

Leadership Development Executive

BIOGRAPHY //

Dana became associated with Flippen Group processes when she began teaching Teen Leadership™ in 2001. She joined the Flippen Group in 2006, providing training for educators throughout the United States. She became a leadership development executive in 2013 and is responsible for leading her team and instrumental in product development.

Dana grew up in Baytown, Texas and graduated from Sam Houston State University with a bachelor's degree in English. She began her career in education as a teacher at Pasadena High School and then moved to Ross S. Sterling High School. Dana taught at the high school level for seventeen years. She was Sterling's Teacher of the Year in 2004 and received the Teaching Excellence Award in 2005.

Dana and her husband, Darrell, live in Baytown, Texas. They have a daughter, Lauren, and a son, Garrett, and enjoy traveling, camping, and spending time with family and friends. Her passion is to help educators make a difference in kids' lives. She truly believes in the statement, "Youth may be only 20 percent of the population, but they are 100 percent of the future." Dana hopes to help others impact the future. ■

KEY FACTS

- Bachelor's degree from Sam Houston State University.
- Teacher in public education for 17 years.
- Named Teacher of the Year in 2004 and Teaching Excellence Award recipient in 2005.