

TEAM MEMBER PORTRAIT

ROHAN PAUL

Director of Corporate Practice

BIOGRAPHY //

Rohan Paul leads the Flippen Group's business practice area. He facilitates the sales and services delivery of leadership solutions to multinational corporations, both in the United States and around the world.

Before joining the Flippen Group, Rohan was the business manager and a founding team member of Breakthrough, a leadership development company based in Bangalore, India. Rohan led the development and implementation of the company's strategic plan and oversaw all aspects of operations. As part of the Breakthrough consulting team, Rohan also developed and delivered workshops extensively across India, as well as in Egypt, Slovakia, the United States, Singapore, and Sri Lanka.

Rohan has extensive global experience, having led and worked with teams in the United States, Australia, Europe, Africa, and Asia. He spent 10 years serving with an international team whose mission is teaching children leadership skills through sports. To date, more than 3 million children in 175 countries have participated in these events, and resources have been translated into dozens of languages.

Rohan and his wife, Sharon, have lived and worked on several different continents, calling College Station, Texas, home since 2007. They have three children: Alicia, Noah, and Rayah. Outside of work, Rohan enjoys traveling, quality time with his family, and riding motorcycles. ■
