

TEAM MEMBER PORTRAIT

CHRIS MAHEU

Senior Consultant

BIOGRAPHY //

Building high-performing teams has been a passion that has carried Chris through a successful career in the demanding environmental industry. As a former company president, he was instrumental in leading company acquisitions, working with the divesting organization, interacting with governmental entities (for both permit transfers and tax incentives), and recruiting and developing leadership teams.

Strategic planning and implementation are significant leadership strengths. He has extensive experience in profit and loss management, revenue growth, operations activity, new service line implementation, and mergers and acquisitions. Chris has been a member of the Business Leadership Team, Executive Safety Committee, and an active Board of Directors member for various companies.

Since joining the Flippen Group in 2012, Chris continues to work with senior executives and leaders throughout the U.S. and the world, including London, Dubai, Indonesia, Asia, and Turkey. He continues to consult with and support businesses from various industry sectors. He has presented at the Environmental Information Digest conference, the Farkas Berkowitz and Company forum, and to environmental leaders in Frankfurt, Germany.

Chris lives in New Orleans, Louisiana with his wife, Charel, and their three children, Christopher II, Connor, and Catie. He is an avid runner who competes in marathons and enjoys coaching and watching his kids participate in various competitive sports. ■

KEY FACTS

- Former senior executive of a publicly traded environmental firm.
- Master's degree in business administration (MBA) from Loyola University.
- Beta Gamma Sigma International Honor Society.

 /company/the-flippen-group

 /flippengroup

 /flippenCorp