KIM WILSON

Service Director of Client Engagement

BIOGRAPHY //

Kim Wilson lives life on purpose! She has a passion for serving others and desires to make a positive influence on anyone she encounters. With a “glass half-full” outlook, outstanding people skills, and willingness to do whatever it takes, Kim provides value that exceeds expectations to Flippen Group external and internal clients.

Prior to joining Flippen Group, Kim worked several years as a Head Start case manager in a public school district serving students, parents, and regional and campus staff. She loves children and has dedicated much of her life to working with families and educators, making a difference in the lives of young people.

Kim has been an instrumental member of the Flippen Group since 2005, serving in various roles on the client engagement team. As service director, Kim works alongside a talented team, planning hundreds of events annually. She also assists in developing and implementing internal systems and processes to ensure quality client support and engagement.

Kim and her husband, Michael, live in Texas and serve in leadership for a non-profit organization, impacting others locally and around the world. They have two adult children, a daughter-in-law, and two incredible grandchildren they visit as often as they can. ■
