

FLIPPEN LEADERSHIP PROFILE

PAT COMBS

Senior Performance Consultant and Corporate Strategy

BIOGRAPHY //

When you meet Pat, his passion for people, excellence, growth, coaching, and bringing out the best in others is quickly recognized. Pat returned to the Flippen Group in April of 2016 after 11 years with Morgan Stanley, Inc., where he and his team managed $1 billion in assets. Prior to his time at Morgan Stanley, Pat was instrumental in building and growing business units within the Flippen Group focused on companies and sports organizations.

Pat's background in professional sports and his Wall Street business experience, supported by 17 years of consulting with the Flippen Profile™ and Flippen developmental processes, provide a foundation to work with clients across industries and professional sports.

Pat spent eight seasons playing professional baseball for the Philadelphia Phillies and Milwaukee Brewers baseball clubs from 1988-1996. As a collegiate athlete, Pat represented the United States as a national baseball player for Team USA. The US team won the gold medal at the Seoul Olympics in 1988. Pat received All-American and Academic All-American honors as a baseball player at Baylor University, where he was later inducted into the Baylor University Athletic Hall of Fame and All-Century Team. Pat graduated with honors and earned a business management degree after completing coursework at Rice University, Baylor University, and the University of Phoenix.

Currently, Pat serves on boards for several non-profit companies, on the Board of Trustees at East Texas Baptist University, and is an active member in The CEO Forum Spiritual Leadership Institute. He and wife, Christina, have three sons: Carson, Conner, and Casey. Pat continues to coach summer select baseball, enjoys mentoring young athletes, and is an active men's discipleship ministry leader in Southlake, Texas. ■

KEY FACTS

- Professional baseball player for eight seasons
- Member of the 1988 US Olympic gold medal baseball team
- Board chairman, Greater DFW Fellowship of Christian Athletes
- Member of the Board of Directors: Baylor "B" Association, High Impact Life, Unlimited Potential
- Member of Board of Trustees for East Texas Baptist University