NANCY ZYZELEWSKI

Leadership Development Strategist

BIOGRAPHY //

Nancy Zyzelewski knew since she was a kindergartener in Michigan that she was destined to be a teacher. She brings 25 years of educational experience working with students with disabilities. Nancy has a passion for serving students and their families while focusing on building relationships that last a lifetime.

Her goal has always been to empower students while creating a safe and loving environment for any student that walks through her door. She served as her school district's special education director for two years and then returned to the classroom. For the past 10 years Nancy has been a high school special education teacher helping students gain the skills necessary to obtain their post secondary educational goals. In 2019 she received the Outstanding People for Education Award by the Allegan County Board of Education.

Nancy and her husband, Mark have two children, Allison and Mitchell. They enjoy traveling, camping, and spending time with family and friends. ■
